The Challenge

Never heard of the Work Opportunity Tax Credit

The motor carrier is a $150M+ trucking company that has roughly 1,100 employees made up of company drivers, office staff and technicians. They hire over 600 employees per year and despite WOTC being an employment tax credit that has been in law since 1996, they had never heard of it.

The cause for this was due to:

1. They expected their CPA to keep them informed on all things tax.
2. The IRS does a poor job marketing tax programs that benefit businesses

The Problem

WOTC implemented through onboarding

Arvo implemented a custom strategy which involved 3 major components::

1. A 1-minute electronic WOTC form for new job applicants
2. A seamless screening integration with their ATS provider Tenstreet
3. A reporting system that provides actionable results to optimize WOTC

The Solution

Motor carrier generated a $100K+ WOTC credit

Within a year of beginning WOTC with Arvo, this motor carrier worked to optimize performance resulting in their tax credit going from $0 to $114,400.
